By Sadhika Sehgal | February 21, 2019

As a girl, I have a list of priorities, these are simple and defined. Stay stylish and stay updated. That includes being in the know about everything that's trending, especially every award show, function or red carpet event. It is the millennial woman's fashion equivalent of Netflix and chill, especially since we get to glue our eyes on Instagram and speculate what everyone wore and imagine how it would look on us. You do that too, right?

After a lot of Instagram scrolling I present to you, my picks of the most stylish outfits from the Nykaa Femina Beauty Awards 2019. A glamorous night in attendance with B-Town's finest, draped in their glittering best.
