State to commemorate Partition Horrors Day

Ravikiran Deshmukh
MUMBAI

The BJP-led Mahayuti government will commemorate Partition Horrors Remembrance Day across the state today (August 14). Divisional Commissioners and District Collectors have been asked to host various events to “create awareness about the poignant memories and sufferings of people during Partition”.

In another development,

Mangal Prabhat Lodha to head committee to celebrate 150 years of Vande Mataram the department of skills, employment and innovation, led by the BJP minister Mangal Prabhat Lodha, will celebrate 150 years of Vande Mataram. Lodha will head a 7-member committee for this.

As per a circular, the commemoration of the remembrance should be organised in banks, post offices, railway stations, airports, shopping malls, educational institutes, petrol pumps, skill development centres and vocational training institutes, to name a few. The administration should make efforts for the participation of maximum people besides hosting programmes where freedom fighters, eminent senior citizens and public representatives are to be invited.

People who have suffered the partition ordeal should also be invited, the state circular states.

Significantly, the circular directs the government machinery to take precautions so that the feelings of sections/groups in society are not hurt. The cautionary advice appears twice in the two-page circular. The event is about the tragedy of partition and the woes of people, hence it should not hurt the feelings of any community, it states.

₹200CR DRUG HAUL | Probe reveals that Navin Chichkar got a Republic of Vanuatu passport; dealt with US-based suppliers

‘Kingpin’ tried to invest proceeds in assets abroad

Somendra Sharma & Ashish Singh
MUMBAI

In an investigative trail that spans across Nepal, the UAE, the UK and Thailand, the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB) has uncovered how alleged kingpin Navin Chichkar, accused in the Rs200 crore drug haul case, allegedly bought a Republic of Vanuatu passport, tried investing crime proceeds worth crores in overseas properties and used cryptocurrency to pay international traffickers before funnelling drug money through hawala.

Investigation revealed that after fleeing from India to Nepal in 2021, Chichkar went to the UAE, UK and Thailand. In his statement, he allegedly disclosed that he had procured a passport of the Republic of Vanuatu and explored high-value real estate acquisitions in the UAE and Thailand. This included a Rs2 crore lease agreement for a luxury property in Phuket province, which was forfeited after he defaulted on installments. Officials said several other property negotiations in both countries also collapsed before completion.

Operating under the alias Raven, Chichkar was also

IN BRIEF

1 Chichkar leased a luxury property in Phuket for ₹2 crore; it was forfeited as he failed to pay installments, says NCB

2 It claims he also dealt with US based suppliers; switched from hawala to USDT crypto for routing crime proceeds

3 Chichkar also tried to contact a Navi Mumbai couple, who were sourcing cocaine and ganja, agency says engaged in the international drug trafficking involving ganja from a US-based supplier known only as Wyatt, paying in USDT cryptocurrency and routing consignments through distributors in Navi Mumbai, said the officials. He allegedly relied on school friends and close associates

Statement of another accused

Prabhat Pandey, another arrested accused, allegedly told the NCB that he first came into contact with Chichkar in 2019 while consuming drugs. He claimed that Chichkar supplied him cocaine and ganja on credit before demanding repayment, after which he joined drug operations. Pandey allegedly said he received drugs from Gopakumar, Mane and Chichkar's brother, and once handed over Rs6 lakh cash to co-accused Uday Gavande on Chichkar's instructions. The officials said that Pandey knew that proceeds from sales were being routed through hawala channels, adding that he admitted depositing money, totalling Rs2-3 crore, at least 25-30 times at a hawala office.

Chichkar met Wyatt in 2019 in Goa, where they discussed supplying ganja to India. He claimed to have paid Wyatt in advance via cryptocurrency for three consignments. In 2020, he allegedly tied up with Taffi, a US-based hydroponic ganja trafficker. Proceeds from sales, according to the NCB, were moved through a TRON-LINK crypto wallet before being handed to Gopakumar, Mane and co-accused Prabhat Pandey, said an NCB official.

Chichkar also told officials that he was acquainted with a couple from Ulwe, who were sourcing cocaine and ganja. Between September and October 2024, he instructed Gopakumar and Mane to approach the duo to identify their supplier. However, in November 2024, the couple was arrested in a separate narcotics case. Chichkar also allegedly revealed that as Indian telephone numbers needed IDs for activation, he used virtual numbers of foreign countries for operating through various communication channels, especially WhatsApp.

Jayakrishna Gopakumar, Makarand Mane and his own brother for local supply. According to the officials,

Following the launch of its dedicated service for the collection of domestic sanitary and special care waste, the BMC has now made it mandatory for bulk waste generators (BWG), including large residential complexes and commercial establishments, to register for the facility. During the service's trial phase between May and August 12, the BMC collected 202 tonnes of such waste from these BWG. These entities are required to segregate their domestic sanitary and special care waste and hand it over to the BMC for proper disposal. To ensure proper waste segregation, the civic body will train residents and staff on the types of waste to be separated. Over the past three months, 2,091 housing societies, 1,146 beauty parlours, 286 educational institutions and 40 women's hostels have registered with BMC for the services. Kiran Dighavkar, deputy municipal commissioner (solid waste management) said, "All registered entities will be provided with specially-designed yellow dustbins from August 18 onwards."
